

THE SUFFOLK HORSE SOCIETY

Annual Awards Dinner Auction

LOT 1

A lamb for the freezer, direct from the farm.

Delivery possible in local area (South Norfolk).
Kindly donated by Mr & Mrs Frank Kinge.
Guide Price: £200

LOT 2

Carriage drive for two.

Enjoy a leisurely drive through the beautiful countryside in Suffolk and Norfolk. Coffee on arrival and meet the horses. Lunch is in a local pub halfway round, then continue the drive through the Waveney Valley, past a lovely historic mill and back to the farm for afternoon tea.
Kindly donated by Mrs Jayne Groom.
Guide Price: £100

LOT 3 & 4

Two original paintings of Suffolk horses working.

Paintings based on recent Plough Day at Ellingham. An accomplished professional artist in oil, watercolour and in pastel, covering a range of subject matter, Jim is tutor in equestrian art through the summer months at the Munnings Museum, Dedham, Essex.

Kindly donated by Jim Power (please note that a percentage of the proceeds from both paintings will be shared with the artist).

Guide Price: £250 each

Lot 3

Lot 4

LOT 5

Colonel's Review: Trooping the Colour 2024. Two tickets to the Dress Rehearsal for Trooping the Colour 2024. Saturday June 8th 2024.

You will be hosted by the Director of the Household Cavalry Foundation who will meet you at 9.00am.
Dress code: Lounge suits. The Parade will finish by 12.45pm.

Kindly donated by Lieutenant Colonel (Retired) Giles Stibbe, OBE, Director of the Household Cavalry Foundation.

Guide Price: £200+

LOT 6

A three night stay in a shepherd's hut.

Tucked away in the Suffolk countryside and hidden in an orchard. Enjoy a peaceful, away-from-it-all, romantic break. Equipped to a high standard, with full size shower, Wi-Fi and TV. Less than half an hour's drive from Southwold and the Suffolk Heritage Coast.

Kindly donated by Gail & Michael Sprake.

Guide Price: £250

LOT 7

A framed print, 'Tom Walne and Star'.

From an original pastel by Tracy Barritt-Brown ASEA.

LOT 8

Thorpeley stud experience, Leicestershire.

A day in the life of a Suffolk horse stud for up to six people. Observe the working day of a busy stud which will include semen collection, meet the vet, basic management, artificial insemination, a guided tour and lunch.

Kindly donated by Bruce Langley McKim.

LOT 9

Two Suffolk Horse Society 'goody bags'.

Containing a selection of current Society merchandise.

Kindly donated by Suffolk Horse Society.

LOT 10

Hand-crafted sculpture of a Suffolk horse.

By well-known local artist and sculptress Mary Keeble.

Kindly donated by Mary Keeble.

LOT 11

Major-General's Rehearsal: Trooping the Colour 2024. Two tickets to the rehearsal for Trooping the Colour 2024. Saturday June 1st 2024

You will be hosted by the Director of the Household Cavalry Foundation who will meet you at 9.00am.

Dress code: Lounge suits. The Parade will finish by 12.45pm.

Kindly donated by Lieutenant Colonel (Retired) Giles Stibbe, OBE, Director of the Household Cavalry Foundation.

Guide Price: £200+

LOT 12

"Best of both worlds: ceremonial and operational"

A Tour for up to four people of the Household Cavalry's Museum at Horse Guards parade and Mounted Regiment in Knightsbridge Barracks, on a mutually convenient day and subject to security and pandemic clearance. The tour is from the time of the daily changing of The Sovereign's Life Guard at 10.50am and will last approximately three hours. Your personal tour will be led by the Director of the Household Cavalry Foundation.

Kindly donated by Lieutenant Colonel (Retired) Giles Stibbe, OBE, Director of the Household Cavalry Foundation.

Guide Price: £200+

LOT 13

An original watercolour, 'Before the tractor'.

By Susan Scott.

LOT 14

Suffolk horse experience day at Gatcombe Farm in Spring 2024, for up to 6 people.

To include farm & estate tour in the morning, followed by light refreshments.

In the afternoon, a Suffolk logging experience with Katy Barr.

Donated by kind permission of Gatcombe Estate.

THE SUFFOLK HORSE SOCIETY

info@suffolkhorsesociety.org.uk www.suffolkhorsesociety.org.uk
Registered Charity No. 220756 Company Registration No. 35060

